5/053/071, Washington County, Utah

Dear Doug:

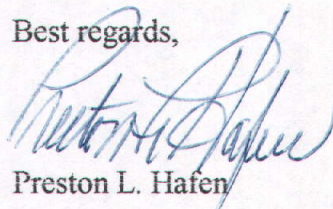

Enclosed please find:

Maps:

1. Topographic base map, scale 1 inch equals 2 miles showing location of operations
And access roads.
2. Topographic base map, scale 1 inch equals 2000 feet showing existing roads, proposed new road, existing disturbance and proposed operations.

Disturbance of approximately 28,000 feet² will result from the new access road to the quarry site. This new access road has been flagged and approved by BLM. The area affected will be included in the total disturbed acreage and will be reclaimed at the conclusion of mining operations in accordance with Section V Proposed Reclamation of the Plan of Operations.

Best regards,

Preston L. Hafen
